EDITORIAL

The first Ubique was issued at the beginning of March and received an enthusiastic reception. The magazine was praised by several A.C.O.s and other people in such exalted positions but readers were of the opinion that the printing did not do justice to the articles. In this issue the printing and format have been altered to make the magazine more legible and attractive.

The editors would appreciate any comments on any aspect of the magazine and would be grateful for any articles.

Comments should be sent to the magazine secretary Andy Burrow, 15, Byron Avenue, Coulsdon, Surrey.

We would like to thank Richard Biggs and Bill for their help in getting this magazine printed.

Editors and production staff- Dave Collarbone; Andy Burrow; Jim Farmer; Andy House.
