

SUNDAY. The scouts were up nice and early while John and Tony had great pleasure in pulling most of the Unit out of their sleeping bags. The Olympic games, Broadstone style, were held after breakfast and included Hammer Throwing, Tossing the Caber, Relay Races, Jumping on the Spot and Running with a mug of water on your head. Jeremy proved himself very athletic when he took part in the relays for the 1st Streatham as they were a man short. After the games there was a chariot building competition. When completed, the teams had to carry their chariots through an assault course which was a very mucky affair. At about 2.30pm we had lunch consisting of some dehydrated peas and mash. After lunch at about 3.15pm we started packing the gear away and at 4pm 'Taff' Evans presented the cup to the winning team, after which everyone went home.

Do You Remember in 1974---

Who said - No Sweat!

Who said - I'll pay you back, I'll pay you back.

Who - Crashed Out!

Who had - The hit record "Happiness"?

Who was - Efficient.

Who said - I'm Dead!

Who said - Clunk Clunk Every Trip!

Who had - The permanent grin?

Who said - They're taking us for a ride here!

Who - Finished!

In what month was the song "Me and my Shadow" No.1?

Who said - The dogs in London are bigger!

Who said - Basically!

Who said - Give us a weed bruvver!

Who said - Where's me sweat shirt?

Which tent walked?

And finally Do You Remember C.B.H.?
